

Parent Notification Rights

Requests to exercise any of these rights or to determine procedures established to provide for the exercise of these rights should be directed to the school in which the student is enrolled or to the office of the superintendent. It shall be assumed that the parent or eligible student has the right to access records and the authority to grant consent for disclosure of records except when the district has evidence or reasonable cause to believe that there is a legally binding instrument, state law or court order which provides to the contrary. Anyone alleging that record access should be denied for the reasons indicated shall be given up to 15 days to provide evidence supporting the allegation during which access will not be given. When a student becomes an eligible student, the rights accorded to and the consent required of the parent of the student shall thereafter only be accorded to a required of the eligible student with the following exception. Student records may be disclosed to the parents of the dependent student as defined by Section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 without written consent.
