Affordable Connectivity Program
Helping Households Connect

My name is Connie Brehm Store Manager at Echovision in Monticello. We are one of the few agencies that have been chosen to offer this program.

The Affordable Connectivity Program is a Federal Communications Commission program that helps connect families and households struggling to afford internet service. This new benefit provides a discount of up to $30 per month toward broadband service for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands.

Eligible households can enroll at Echovision right here in Monticello.

The Affordable Connectivity Program is a Federal Communications Commission program that is helping UScellular customers in the Monticello area stay connected with affordable internet service on a Smartphone, Tablet, or High-Speed Internet Router by providing a discount of up to $30 per month toward broadband service for eligible households and up to $75 per month for households on qualifying Tribal lands.

Eligible households that are current UScellular customers can learn more about the benefit, including eligibility and enrollment information by visiting <https://www.uscellular.com/plans/affordable-connectivity-program>. If you are not a current UScellular customer and would like to learn more about eligibility and enrollment for the $30 discount through the Affordable Connectivity Program, please visit US Cellular Echovision at 201 South Main Street Monticello or call us at 319.465.3733 to schedule an appointment with one of our Affordable Connectivity Program Certified associates.
